

Bio: Reverend Leroy D. Evans Jr.

Reverend Leroy D. Evans Jr. is a native of Brooklyn, New York, a man of God who was led at an early age to motivate and inspire generations of people. He is the Son of Bishop Leroy and Veala Evans Sr. He accepted Christ at the age of 13 and was a faithful member of Second Calvary Baptist Church in Brooklyn, New York.

Eager to serve his country, Reverend Evans joined the United States Army on September 16, 1981 (age 17) where he served for over 23 years. He was blessed to serve in many great capacities to include being a United States Army Senior Drill Sergeant and retired as an Army First Sergeant in February 2004. While serving in the military he had assignments in Europe, Fort Hood Texas, Fort Riley Kansas, and Fort Lee, Virginia. He is a Gulf War Veteran who obtained his Bachelor of Arts Degree in Business Management while serving his country.

Following his tenure in the United States Army, Reverend Evans retired from the Federal Government, where he was employed by the Army Logistics University (ALU). Serving over 35 years of Federal Government Service .

In addition to serving in various capacities of leadership throughout the years, Reverend Evans was also involved in a variety of ministerial endeavors that prepared him to embrace lost souls and minister to the whole individual regardless of challenges or limitations. He was licensed to preach in 2007, and received his Master of Divinity from the Samuel Dewitt Proctor, School of Theology at Virginia Union University in 2010.

Reverend Evans is currently serving as the Senior Pastor of the Union Baptist Church, Spring Grove, Spring Grove Virginia. Where their theme is “The Year of Overflow”.

Reverend Evans is married to his wonderful bride Kimberly Lynette Evans and they are blessed with 4 children; Quentin, Braxton, Alisha and Justice. 3 bonus children Kewana, Kawana and Terrance. Kimberly and Leroy are blessed with eight grandchildren.

Reverend Evans has many favorites throughout the Bible, but Ephesians 3:20, KJV: “Now unto him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worked in us,” is where he desires to rest his heart on for such a time as this.
